JECSE's mission is to help our schools 'to educate men and women for and with others', competent, conscientious, and with compassionate commitment, engaged together in a mission of reconciliation and peace, in creative fidelity to

"Through education we want to understand human beings and the world in all their complexity, so that human beings can configure the world in a way that is more compassionate, and therefore more divine."

The JECSE promotes Jesuit education in Europe in creative fidelity to the spirituality of St. Ignatius of Loyola.

The Education Delegates in the European region support Ignatian education for more than 170,000 students offering:

Pastoral Conferences

Conferences for school leaders

Ignatian Leadership Program

Ignatian Pedagogical Formation

Safeguarding and child protection.
