Formation Program

The Cardoner Program primarily emphasizes the experiential and effective character of formation, including Ignatian Spirituality and the Spiritual Exercises as an articulating element.

It has the following structure:

MANRESA stage- Addresses awareness about Ignatian spirituality, the life experience of Saint Ignatius, and works on introspection and self-knowledge of the person.

It is made up of three blocks: Block 1: "Ignatius of Loyola and my spiritual path" (7 sessions);

Block 2: "Ignatian Spirituality (1st and 2nd parts; 12 sessions)";

Block 3: "The project of the Society of Jesus and my project" (6 sessions).

PARIS Stage- Aimed with special emphasis at directors of apostolic works (but includes other collaborators). It focuses on their way of being and proceeding; delves into development and human relations, teamwork and leadership as a service.

It is made up of Block 4, which addresses the following topics: personal growth, social apostolate, educational apostolate, parish apostolate, social apostolate and cultural apostolate.
